Examiner's Amendment/Reasons for Allowance

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Roland E. Long Jr. on December 16, 2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. Claim 26, line 2, change "27" to --24--;

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, with respect to claims 19-20, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed ophthalmic lens device comprising a material having an optical refractive index varying in at least one direction in response to a force being exerted directly on the material by ocular tissue, for causing the refractive index to change, and further wherein the material further comprises at least one polymer onto which is bonded at least one substituent selected from the groups as claimed. Specifically, with respect to claims 23-24, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed ophthalmic lens device comprising a material having an optical refractive index varying in at least one direction in response to a force being exerted directly on the material by ocular tissue, for causing the refractive index to change, and specifically further wherein the material comprises at least one of a mesomorphic compound or a liquid crystal polymer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
